

before...

AWARD-WINNING DESIGN

...after

COOLSPRING STREET

Fayette County Housing Authority
Uniontown, Pennsylvania

Notable Aspects:

- The completed project virtually eliminated the institutional feel of the original design, and has been used as a prototype for all subsequent projects at the FCHA.
- Undesirable aspects of the site including the unsightly buildings and site were transformed into a visually pleasing development.
- The project was featured in a PHARA presentation to regional housing authorities at a Seven Springs conference.
- The project won 2003 Award of Merit by the Western Pennsylvania Chapter of the Association of Builders and Contractors.

Engineering the Future